Architecture & You Workshop

August 3-7, 2009

More about the workshop

Are you interested in design and buildings?

Have you ever dreamed of being an architect?

If so, this week-long immersive architecture workshop may be for you!

What is it?

Architecture, the Weisman, and You! is an exciting week-long workshop that offers the opportunity to work with professional architects, engineers and designers from the University of Minnesota at the Weisman Art Museum. Posing an architectural project, participants will explore, design, and build creative solutions in a professional setting.

Who?

40 students entering grades 10-12 this upcoming fall. Lead Instructor Josh Weinstein, architect with local design and engineering professionals, and mentors from the College of Architecture and Landscape Design at the University of Minnesota. Enrollment is limited and is on a first come first served basis.

Where?

Weisman Art Museum, 333 East River Road, Minneapolis, MN 55455

When?

August 3-7, 2009, 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. each day

Fee?

The workshop fee for students currently enrolled in either Minneapolis Public or St Paul Public School Districts is free. All others pay $150 fee for the five-day class. This includes all of the art materials you will need.

Deadline for applications: June 15, 2009
